

Look Over Your Expense Account

and see if there's a leakage or not. If so, maybe it's because you're paying too dear for what you buy.

Everybody can afford to buy clothes at this store and as for shoes it's a regular shoe show.

Suit Bargains	Boys' Suit Bargains	Shoe Bargains
$10.00 Suits $6.75	$3.50 Boys' Suits $1.95	$3.50 Oxfords or High Lace and Button $2.95
$12.50 Suits 7.95	5.00 Boys' Suits 3.95	4.00 Oxfords or High Lace and Button 3.45
$15.00 Suits 10.50	7.00 Boys' Suits 5.25	4.50 Oxfords or High Lace and Button 3.95
$18.00 Suits 14.50	8.00 Boys' Suits 6.25	New, this season's goods.
$20.00 Suits 16.50	10.00 Boys' Suits 7.50	$7.00 Stetson Shoes $5.50
$25.00 Suits 19.50	Red Man Collars 9c	6.50 Stetson Shoes 5.00
$30.00 Suits 22.50	3 for 27c	6.00 Stetson Shoes 4.75
$35.00 Suits 27.50		5.00 Stetson Shoes 4.25
$25.00 Blues 21.50

Closing out all our Children's Educator Shoes. Now is the time to stock up. Come and buy Men's Union Suits, 45c, the greatest value you ever saw. This store has the biggest line of Straw Hats in the city. See bill for prices.

Lamorey Clothing Company

BARRE, TUES., JUNE 10

YOUNG BUFFALO HIPPO CUMMINS COL.
WILD WEST PROMER FAR EAST
 A HUGE AND COMPLETE MIRROR OF WONDERLAND
 STARTLING SPECTACULAR
 AMERICA'S REAL WILD WEST
 NEW VIEWS OF FRONTIER DAYS
 HIPPODROME ACHIEVEMENTS
 WHOLLY NEW TO AMERICA
 FAR EAST GRAPHIC DISPLAYS
 THE WIDEST IN AMUSEMENT
 WORLD'S IDEAL HORSEMEN
 AND EQUINES OF MANY CENTS
 HUGE COMEDY INDIANS
 IN MANY TIMES
 COW-BOYS
 COW-GIRLS
 ACTING ELEPHANTS
 NOVEL NATIONALS
 FIRST AND FOREMOST
 AN ARENA TEEMING WITH WONDERS THAT IS BROADER THAN ITS TITLE
THE UNITED STATES PARADE
 DAILY, 10:30 A.M.
 MOST ORIGINAL PROCESSION EVER SEEN
 ANIMATING THE PAGES OF HISTORY
 DOORS OPEN 10:00 & 7:00 P.M. PERFORMANCES 2:00 & 8:00 P.M.
 Reserved Seats will be on sale at KENDRICK'S DRUG STORE day of exhibition at same price as charged on grounds.

PERRY & NOONAN
Unexcelled Funeral Furnishings
HOSPITAL AMBULANCE SERVICE
Special Orders For Furniture
 Undertakers and Licensed Embalmers. Depot Square, Barre
 Telephone Connections
 Store, 425-1 Mr. Perry, 425-2 Mr. Noonan, 425-3

An Advertisement in the Times
 Will Bring Sure Results.

who is particular and wants to serve the best on her table, buys her Bread, Cakes, Pies, Biscuits, etc., here. She appreciates it does not pay her to bake when she can buy the best here. Why not follow her example?

THE PLACE THAT GREW FROM QUALITY

C.A. CARON
CITY SANITARY BAKERY
 TELEPHONE 12-M CAMPBELL BLOCK

GROTON

Death and Funeral of Mrs. A. J. Carpenter at Age of 69 Years.
 Mrs. A. J. Carpenter died Friday afternoon at her home in the village after an illness of ten days following a shock, failing gradually till the end. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, Rev. S. H. Myers officiating, assisted by Rev. W. A. Davidson. Burial was in the village cemetery beside her husband, who died a few years ago. Deceased was 69 years of age and was born in Groton, one of the large family of children of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Welch. She is survived by three sons and two daughters, S. C. and Warren of Groton, A. B. Carpenter of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Thomas White of South Ryegate, and Mrs. A. H. Teller of Groton; also several brothers and sisters and a large number of friends who mourn her loss. She was respected and highly esteemed by all. Those here from out of town to attend the funeral were A. B. Carpenter of Louisville, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Averill of Barre, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hooper of Hardwick, Mrs. Mary J. Emery and son, Bert, of Bath, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welch of Plainfield, Earl Carpenter of Manchester, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, Mr. and Mrs. James Craigie, George Dunnett and Mrs. S. Carpenter, all of South Ryegate.

Ellsworth Arthur of Burlington was in town Monday and Tuesday.
 Miss Lila Dunn is visiting relatives at Melrose.
 Miss Jennie Taylor was home from her school in Newbury over Sunday and Monday.
 Grover Smith of St. Johnsbury was a visitor in town over Sunday.

Mr. Isaac Wilson of Corinth is at the home of her son, Levi, for a stay of several weeks.
 Curtis Carpenter left Monday for his home at Bartonville, after passing some time visiting relatives here.

Miss Mary Hall returned to her studies at Montpelier seminary after a few days' stay at her home here. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. N. Hall.

Judge Thomas B. Hall left Monday afternoon for Waltham, Mass., where he was called by the death of his niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knox returned from Bethel Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman of Topsham visited the family of their daughter, Mrs. Dexter Whitehill, over Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ricker were guests of their brother, N. H. Ricker, at Wells River Saturday night.

Alfred Emery was before Justice S. P. Welch Monday morning and paid a fine of $2.45 for intoxication and disturbing the peace.

Mrs. R. N. Darling and daughter, Evalina, of Bradford were visitors in town over Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Horace White of Topsham is visiting her brother, Dr. S. N. Eastman.

P. M. Atkinson of St. Johnsbury was a guest at the home of F. P. Downs over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Clark of Hardwick are visiting Mrs. Clark's son, Gerald Smith.

Among those here to attend the centennial anniversary of the Baptist church were Rev. A. N. Woodruff of Barre, a former pastor of the church; Mrs. G. W. Clough of Rumney; Mrs. A. E. Rugg of Fairfax, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Farrow and Miss Anna Renfrew of Peacham.

Mrs. Bertha Perrigall of St. Johnsbury was at Charles Jordan's, her father, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Darling were at Woodsville, N. H., yesterday.

YOUR GROCER SELLS
Stickney & Poor's Mustard
 Tell him nothing else will suit you.

MORETOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Atkins and Sidney Turner were in Barre Sunday, as was also W. L. Wilcox.

Ansil Newton of Montpelier visited at P. E. Griffith's Sunday.

Ned Goodno of Montpelier was a guest of Theodore Atkins' over Sunday.

Miss Nina Hodgdon of West Milan, N. H., and the Misses Ruth and Alice Hodgdon of Montpelier seminary were over-Sunday guests at H. O. Ward's.

Misses Ella and Mattie Somerville of Burlington visited their mother, Mrs. T. T. Somerville, the past week at the home of W. A. Kingsbury.

Miss Florence Pierce, accompanied by Miss Margaret Newton of Montpelier, was at her home from Friday until Monday.

M. H. McAllister of Barre was a local visitor Friday and Saturday.

Miss Maude Johnson of Montpelier spent Thursday night and Friday at her home here.

Mr. Bryant of the creamery firm of Bryant & Chapman of Hartford, Conn., was in town Thursday.

Mrs. R. C. Atkins and son, Theodore, were in Montpelier Wednesday to attend the Mackay-Dodge wedding.

Mrs. Fred Shontell and two children, Beatrice and Lewis, were in Montpelier last Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Wilcox, who has been quite ill the past week, is convalescing. Miss Clara Maxwell, a nurse, is caring for her.

Pre-Memorial day exercises were held in the grammar school room on Thursday. Aaron Goss, a Civil war veteran, was present and told the children some of his experiences. Rev. A. A. Mandigo also gave a short address.

Albert Warren of Barre is stopping for the present at the Sawyer homestead.

B. F. Griffith was in Essex Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. M. L. Mobbs went to Johnson Saturday to visit her son, Holmes, for a few days.

Miss Harriette Knapp is confined to the house by illness.

Rev. H. A. Durfee, D. D., general secretary of the Vermont Sunday School association, conducted a Sunday school institute at the M. E. church Saturday and also officiated at the Sunday morning service.

Rev. Lewis E. Smith, the noted singer and evangelist of Boston will begin a series of evangelistic services at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, June 4.

B. S. Ward left Monday evening for Syracuse, N. Y., for several days' stay.

Mrs. M. H. McAllister and two children of Burlington are visiting local relatives.

WAITS RIVER

Mrs. H. B. Martin was taken very sick Saturday evening and is no better at this writing.

E. S. Locke and William Standlick were in Barre one day last week and Mr. Standlick had his ears treated by Dr. Sprague.

Farmers, take notice! Keep your hen houses locked securely, as there are hen thieves around these dark nights, inspecting them.

Emma Ball is stopping at W. R. Hood's for the present.

Arthur Wright has got his auto home from Barre. Who will be the next to purchase from our community?

Annie Currier is spending a short vacation at home before her graduation in Johnson.

Quite a number attended the Memorial exercises at East Corinth last Friday.

Mrs. O. L. Barnard and daughter, Lucy, spent last Friday and Saturday in Barre and Montpelier.

E. V. Patten is on the sick list. Catherine Carter is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carter.

ORANGE.

Jerry-Machia Wedding in St. Sylvester's Church, Graniteville.

Miss Lizzie Machia, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Machia, and Bert Jerry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jerry, were united in marriage May 28th at St. Sylvester's church in Graniteville by Father Turcot. A large number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. Miss Florence Machia, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Charles Felkey was groomsmen. The bride was becomingly gowned in white chiffon over pink messaline, with a large white picture hat, and the bridesmaid wore a dress of white embroidered muslin. The bride's traveling suit was of tan whipcord, with hat to match.

After the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, and in the evening a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. The happy couple were the recipients of a large number of wedding gifts, among them articles of silver, cut glass, and linen. They left the next morning on a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home at Eugene Jerry's for a time.

Miss Edna Beard made a trip to East Cabot one day last week.

E. A. Cutler and family were in South Royalton Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Brown spent Memorial day at her home in Barre.

Miss Ella Barrett visited at her home in Cabot last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Raymo of Barre City spent Memorial day with friends in town.

Miss Lulu Thompson visited friends in Williamstown recently.

Don Richardson was a visitor in Williamstown over Memorial day.

At grange meeting next Friday night, the third and fourth degrees will be conferred on several candidates, and refreshments served.

W. H. Crockett visited his sister in Northfield over Sunday.

Herbert Wheelock of the U. V. M. is visiting friends in town.

Storrs Noyes went to Burlington last week to visit his wife, who has been ill at the Mary Fletcher hospital for the past few months. Mrs. Noyes' many friends are glad to hear that her condition is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Church of Bradford were guests of their son and daughter, E. M. Clement and Mrs. F. C. Magoon, several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hutchins of Barre City spent Memorial day at the home of F. C. Magoon.

Master Wendell Hutchins of Barre is spending the week with his aunt, Mrs. Fred Magoon.

G. W. Clark is spending a few days in Barre.

Reuben Peake and lady friend and Clarence Curtis spent the week-end at the home of E. O. Curtis.

MARSHFIELD

Ted, the little four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brown, while accompanying C. M. Lilley for the cows last Monday night, ran in front of one of the cows, when the animal threw up her head, hitting him with her horn and making two ugly gashes in his cheek.

If the horn had entered a little lower it would have severed the jugular vein. The physician was speedily summoned and took thirteen stitches in dressing the wounds. At last accounts the little fellow was as comfortable as could be expected.

The quarterly business meeting for the election of officers of the Village Improvement society will be held next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Lee Short.

George O. Smith rode to the village one day last week or the first time since last Thanksgiving. Mr. Smith has been suffering with rheumatism during the winter, but with the return of warm weather has improved somewhat. His many friends hope that the improvement will continue until a permanent cure is effected.

Mrs. A. T. Davis and son, George, have been spending a few days with her father in Rochester, N. Y.

Miss Emily Stickney returned to Montpelier Monday night, after spending a few days at the home of Miss Burnham.

The regular monthly meeting of the village trustees was held at the town clerk's office, Wednesday evening, May 29. C. D. Smith and B. W. Davis were appointed a standing committee on street lighting for the year and C. M. Lilley and Lee Short as a committee on streets and walks. C. E. Thwing was appointed village constable.

Next Sunday morning will be observed as children's day with appropriate exercises at the Congregational church.

The Memorial exercises given by the public school children last Thursday afternoon were well attended and reflected credit on teachers and pupils.

BROOKFIELD

Mrs. Edith Kenyon returned Thursday to her home in Hartford, Conn., expecting to come back about the middle of June to occupy her cottage.

Someone stole sixteen of A. R. Rumney's hens one night last week.

William C. Clark remains in very poor health.

The Memorial day program was well carried out. One hundred took dinner in the banquet hall. In the afternoon the town hall was filled with an appreciative audience, who enjoyed all the exercises. The music was exceptionally good and the address by Allan Fay of Barre was attentively listened to and all pronounced it excellent.

Mrs. Laura M. Allis of Randolph came Thursday and stayed till Tuesday with her brother, R. W. Walbridge, at the Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blake of Randolph were over-Sunday guests of her brother, E. A. Sargent, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Yaw spent Sunday at George W. Lynde's in Williams-town.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones of Enfield, N. H., were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Elson.

Mrs. Isabelle Amidon and son, Fred, were business visitors in Northfield, on Wednesday.

George Panton of Randolph called on his brother, L. B. Panton, Sunday.

Hon. Charles A. Plumley, state tax commissioner, was in town Tuesday on business.

Cassius Wardner, who is attending the business college in Albany, N. Y., received a post card shower last week from his friends in Brookfield, the occasion being his birthday anniversary.

The road machine, which the town purchased, arrived last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sargent entertained on Memorial day, their son, Ernest Sargent, and family, and their daughter, Mrs. E. A. Sargent, of Woodsville, N. H.; also another daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Parker of Lisbon, N. H.

NORTH MONTPELIER

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McWay of Woodbury Center were in town Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Lilley of Marshfield visited relatives here and in Calais Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Hollister and daughter, Rachel, and Weston Gate of Barre visited at J. W. Butterfield's Sunday.

David Keefe and Dora Coburn of Goddard seminary and Miss Doris Wilbur of Spaulding high school, Barre, visited at their respective homes over Memorial day and the week end.

Work is being rushed on the new mill. Several extra carpenters are at work there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kelley of Windsor spent the week-end with relatives in town.

Sunday, June 1, was a banner day at the North Montpelier creamery, 2,774 pounds of butter being made that day.

Mrs. Alma Little and daughter, Charlotte, of Northfield Falls spent the week-end with Mrs. Henry Chapin.

Sam Thompson and men of Barre are pressing hay at J. W. Butterfield's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hammett, Messrs. Curtis Graves and George Pray, Jr., Mrs. H. J. Conant and Miss Minnie Lawless attended the Choral union concert at Montpelier last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Gate of North Calais called on friends in town Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Dwell Noyes of Springfield, Mass., a former resident of East Calais, will be pleased to hear she will spend several weeks here this summer with her sister, Mrs. C. P. Spaulding.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Coburn and Mrs. Theo. Clark and children were in Montpelier Tuesday.

Miss Grace Hamblett and friend, Miss Helen Hack, of Goddard seminary spent the week-end at Miss Hamblett's home here.

C. C. Ainsworth of Montpelier was a visitor in town Friday.

Mrs. Charles Hopkins of Waterbury visited at Mrs. May Johnson's over Memorial day and the week-end.

Miss Bertha Johnson of Northfield Falls has been spending a few weeks at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Mason of Montpelier visited in town Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Gray and daughter, Beatrice, were the guests of relatives the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lawrence of Peacham are staying at Ephie Pray's for a short time.

Merrill Clark returned home Thursday night from Worcester, Mass., where he has been working for the past four months.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley visited at George P. Pray's Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Byron of Windsor visited relatives in town from Memorial day until Monday.

John Joyce of Northfield and Robert and Neal Templeton were visitors in town last week.

J. W. Butterfield is running a Ford automobile.

John Moeckroft was the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. O. Nye, over the week-end.

Preparations are being made for Children's day exercises next Sunday, June 8. Everybody cordially invited.

A number of the school children, with their teachers, attended the Memorial exercises of the East Montpelier schools at East Montpelier Thursday afternoon.

"Silas, the Chorus Boy" will be presented at the Plainfield opera house Wednesday evening, June 4, by local talent. This entertainment is given under the auspices of the library trustees. Tickets are on sale at Leavitt's drug store; 25c and 15c cents.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Mrs. Hattie Sivright and Miss Bessie Sivright went to Burlington this morning as delegates to the grand lodge of the state, O. E. S., from Charity chapter, No. 57, of this town.

The annual meeting of the Rural Good Luck club will be held with Mrs. Lena Briggs on Saturday, June 7.

W. E. Randall has taken the agency for the Westinghouse tungsten electric lamps and the same may be seen at his barber shop in the grange building.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kaulbach of Greenfield, Mass., have lately called on Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Watson, while on a motor trip through the state.

George Abbott of Northfield visited his niece, Mrs. Elizabeth Whittier, and his nephew, John A. Perry, on June 3.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Dean of Lawrence, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Seavers, Monday evening, when the Birthday Social club surprised them by driving in to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

The young folks played games, while the older ones enjoyed a social time. A short program was given, after which refreshments of ice cream and cake and saltines were served. Mr. and Mrs. Seaver received many pretty presents and the best wishes of their friends, who hope to meet them again 25 years from now to help celebrate their golden anniversary.

Principal Harry S. Morse of the high school spent Memorial day at his home in Brandon, returning Monday morning, June 2.

Miss Emma E. Adams, who has been away from home visiting in the West for several months, is now staying with her brother, Wilbur F. Adams of Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Mary Staples is visiting relatives in Marshfield.

Miss Maudie Bissell of Rutland has lately visited Miss Olive G. Robinson at the home of W. B. Jones.

Frank B. Hoyt of the Hoyt McAllister, Martin Co., Inc., is unable to be in the store on account of measles.

NORTH CALAIS

Horace Douglas and family of Crafts-bury are at Joe Seely's for a few days.

Mrs. Andrew Scribner is the guest of her son, Herbert Scribner, for a time.

Mrs. Lizzie Fay of Chicago is spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Lee Leonard.

C. H. Rogers of Cabot visited at I. S. Taber's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Haskins were called to Hardwick the last of the week by the illness of Mrs. Haskins' father, Henry Doten.

George Laundry was a visitor in Montpelier one day last week.

Another comrade of Stove post, No. 29, has answered to the last roll call and gone to the heavenly home. Henry E. Rickard passed from this life Sunday morning, June 1, at Montpelier, after a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held from Memorial hall on Tuesday at 1 o'clock. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss.

WATERBURY

Miss Kathryn Towne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Towne, who was operated upon at the Mary Fletcher hospital for appendicitis, is doing very well.

The wedding of Miss Lena Snow and Angus Douglass was solemnized at Stowe, Friday.

Roy LeBaron and Miss Kathleen LeBaron were home over Sunday from Goddard seminary. Mr. LeBaron was receiving congratulations upon the medals received in the interscholastic meet at Burlington, Saturday.

Rev. W. L. Boicourt was at the Heat-on hospital yesterday. The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boicourt is not gaining as fast as could be wished.

E. F. Palmer, Jr., is confined to the house with the prevailing distemper.

Mrs. George W. Morse entertained a part of the local members of Marquis de Lafayette chapter, D. A. R., at her home Friday in honor of Mrs. A. O. Cummings of Montpelier.

Supt. R. W. Palmer was in Northfield yesterday on business connected with the schools.

A most excellent meeting was held at the Congregational church Sunday evening, led by Clyde Morse. A flute solo was rendered by Miss Annie Dorothy Palmer.

Buel W. Morse is moving into the so-called mill house of the Demeritt & Palmer Pkg. Co.

Frank B. Douglass was at the Fanny Allen hospital Sunday to see his wife, who is doing very nicely.

Little Gladys Carr, at the home of E. F. Foss, is doing poorly.

Mrs.